Planning Outlook*All mountain areas of Britain from Thursday, 13 June, 2019

Low pressure will dominate for the rest of this week into the weekend, maintaining unsettled conditions across the British Isles. Periods of rain and some heavy downpours with possible thunder and lightning. Temperatures generally cool, and winds often brisk across the hills. Day-to-day forecast detail will stay very uncertain, with occasional windows of drier weather possible locally. Into next week, generally warmer with winds from the south/southwest. Some hints of pressure building at least for a time to give drier weather.
